

Jessica Harrington
Trainer

Jessica Harrington is a top Irish trainer in both flat racing and steeplechase racing. She is perhaps best known as the trainer of Moscow Flyer, who won 10 grade 1 steeplechase races. Harrington has won races including the Queen Mother Champion Chase, Champion Hurdle, Coral Cup Handicap Hurdle, Timico Gold Cup, and BoyleSports Irish Grand National. She is the most successful female trainer to compete at the Cheltenham Festival.

On the flat, Harrington's most prominent horse has been Cartier Award winner Alpha Centauri. She competed in the 2019 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf with group 1 winner Albigna.
