

Bill Knauf
Vice President of Business Operations
Monmouth Park Racetrack and Sports Book

Bill Knauf currently serves as Monmouth Park's vice president of business operations. He began working for Monmouth in 1998.

Since joining the organization 21 years ago, Knauf has held various positions in marketing, media, and operations, including oversight of the pari-mutuel business. In his current role, Knauf oversees the operation of all departments, including budgets, daily operations, and personnel management. He also oversees operations for Monmouth's sports book, which opened in June 2018 and has taken more than $200 million in wagers since that time. Knauf has continued to develop Monmouth as a premier racetrack and entertainment destination in the northeast.

Knauf grew up in Albany, N.Y. He is a graduate of Tufts University and the University of Arizona Race Track Industry Program.
