Ron Moquett
Trainer

Ron Moquett saddled his first horse in 1997. Since then, he has saddled three Kentucky Derby Contenders: Far Right (2015), Whitmore (2016), and King Russell (2023). The star of Moquett's stable was Whitmore, who earned more than $4.5 million, won the Breeders' Cup Sprint in 2020, and won the Eclipse Award in 2020 for Champion Male Sprinter. To honor the achievements of Whitmore, Oaklawn Park honored him on March 19, 2022, with Whitmore Day featuring the $200,000 Whitmore Stakes.

Some of the other top horses that have been in Moquett's care include:

Gentlemen's Bet, 3rd in the Xpressbet Breedr's Cup Sprint – 2013
Far Right, won the Gr. III Southwest Stakes – 2015

Petrov, 2nd in the Southwest Stakes – 2017
Seek Gold, won the Gr. I Stephen Foster Handicap – 2006

Heykittkittykitty, 1st or 2nd in 18 out of 21 starts

Since 2015, Moquett has been ranked in the top 100 trainers by earnings. As of July 7, 2023, Moquett has saddled 7,740 career starts, 982 wins and earnings over $37.6M. Moquett is currently ranked 41 by earnings for 2023.
