

John Gosden
Trainer

John Gosden has won more than 3,500 races around the world, including across Europe, the United States, the Middle East, Asia, and Australia.

Gosden also had a successful training career in the United States throughout the 1980s, where he trained Eclipse Award champions Bates Motel and Royal Heroine and regularly featured in the top eight trainers across the entire USA.

Since returning to train in England in 1989, John Gosden has trained a plethora of champions and Classic/Grade 1/Group 1 winners, including Enable, Golden Horn, Raven's Pass, Kingman, Roaring Lion, Dar Re Mi, Jack Hobbs, The Fugue, Cracksman, and Stradivarius. He has won more than 50 races at Royal Ascot and is the four times and current British Champion Trainer.