

Beverly Strauss
Co-founder & Executive Director
MidAtlantic Horse Rescue

Beverly Strauss co-founded MidAtlantic Horse Rescue with Ginny Cole in 2002. MidAtlantic Horse Rescue, located in Chesapeake City, Maryland, is a Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance-accredited organization that buys slaughter-bound ex-racehorses and transitions Thoroughbreds off the track into second careers.

Strauss has more than 40 years of equine experience, from racing and training to eventing and foxhunting. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in biology from the University of Virginia and her Master of Business Administration from Rutgers. Strauss has her A Certification from the United States Pony Club (USPC), the highest riding certification available to members.
